In line with 'Patient First' (PFIS) and our 'True North' objectives patient centered care is pinnacle. At the heart of our wards philosophies, are the rights, choices and expectations of each individual. We aim to provide the highest standard of evidence based clinical care in line with University Hospitals Sussex NHS Trust policy. Promoting the optimum level of self-care and independence.

We value and actively encourage participation by patients and their loved ones in any decisions made regarding their care. We promote an environment where they feel free to discuss any issues of concern with any team member.
